Farm Bureau Insurance Contracts With New Agent in Lexington

Lexington S.C. – South Carolina Farm Bureau Mutual Insurance Company (SCFBMIC) recently contracted with Dan Morris to serve as an agent in the Lexington office located at 121 Park Rd.

Morris graduated from Waccamaw High School in Pawley’s Island, S.C.

“Insurance is a unique way of providing a service that many people do not even realize they need,” Morris said. “As a Farm Bureau Insurance agent, I look forward to helping people craft a comprehensive plan consisting of auto, home and life insurance to ensure they are protected no matter what happens in life.”

Morris is an active member in the community. He attends Riverland Hills Baptist Church and is a part of the International Association of Firefighters. Prior to becoming an insurance agent, Morris served for four years in the U.S. Army as a corporal. He currently resides in Irmo, S.C., where he enjoys spending time with his wife, Abbey, and two children, Emma and Henry.
